Travel Funds Available For Current MSU Graduate Students

The Environmental Science & Policy Program (ESPP) will provide support for graduate student travel to professional meetings. Students must be presenting papers or posters focusing on environmental science and policy. Support of up to $750 for domestic meetings and up to $1,000 for meetings outside the U.S. will be available.

To apply, students should submit:

- An abstract of the paper or poster
- A short description of the nature of the meeting and of the context in which the paper will be presented (e.g., title of paper session or poster session)
- A short budget indicating in general terms the costs of travel, registration and lodging for the meeting
- A short note from the student's dissertation advisor indicating her or his support for the application

Applications will be reviewed on an ongoing basis starting on February 1, 2005, and continue until the allocated funds are depleted. Materials should be forwarded to: Ken Beer (beerk@msu.edu). Recipients will be contacted and asked to provide personal information (PID, etc.) to assist in filling out University paperwork prior to the awarding of the funds.

Priority will be given to:

- Current ESPP fellowship holders
- Students enrolled in the ESPP doctoral specialization
- Students who have enrolled in ESP 801 or are currently enrolled in ESP 802
- Presentations of a clearly interdisciplinary nature
- Presentations at interdisciplinary meetings

Students receiving funding are expected to acknowledge that support in their presentation, and to provide ESPP with a copy of the program page displaying their presentation or poster and an electronic copy of the presentation (PowerPoint slides, paper) or poster.
